

PLANT VARIETY PROTECTION (PVP)

This is not a complete list of varieties or crops, and the associated Plant Variety Protection. For a complete list please visit the Plant Variety Protection Web Site at <https://www.ams.usda.gov/services/plant-variety-protection>. There are two levels of Plant Variety Protection (PVP) 1) PVP - the variety must be sold by variety name with the variety owner's permission (the variety in question does not need to be certified but the seller MUST have the owner's permission. 2) PVP Title V - this means that the variety in question can only be sold as a class of certified seed. In either case the purchaser may replant the seed from the variety that he has purchased for as many seasons as is wished. It is the responsibility of the buyer and seller to confirm the PVP status of the variety in question before the seed changes ownership. It is illegal for anyone to purchase grain of a protected variety and use it for any planting purposes.
